

First Announcement and Call for Papers

The 6th IAEE Asian Conference
Wuhan, China, 2-4 November, 2018

Energy Exploitation and Cooperation in Asia

We are pleased to announce that the 6th IAEE Asian Conference will be held in Wuhan, China on November 2-4, 2018. We welcome you to Wuhan, the capital of the Hubei province, with a rich history and modern cultural developments.

TOPICS (including but not limited)

- Forecasting Asian energy demands and supplies in total and by primary energy source and geography
- Forecasting needed energy infrastructure investments in Asia
- Opportunity and challenge in energy exploitation and cooperation
- National security and strategic implications of meeting Asian energy growth
- Energy pricing issues
- Energy efficiency improvements
- Possible changes in the structure of Asian energy markets
- The potential for renewable and other new energy technologies
- Energy and Electricity markets reform
- Grid and Power industry deregulation
- Climate change policy and effective CO<sub>2</sub> removal
- Investment issues in liberalized markets
- Oil & Gas production and cooperation

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS

Abstracts in PDF format, maximum 2 pages in length, covering Overview, Methods, Expected results and References should be submitted via conference Website: forthcoming.

VENUE

The conference will be held at the Optics Valley Kingdom Plaza Hotel. Website: www.whkingdom.com

KEY DATES

Tracks proposal deadline: May 1, 2018

Abstracts submission deadline: June 1, 2018

CONTACT

Prof. Jianzhong Xiao (xjianzhong@cug.edu.cn);

Associate Prof. Xiaolin Wang (wangxiaolin\_cug@163.com)

Sincerely we welcome you to the 6th IAEE Asian Conference in Wuhan, China.
School of Economics and Management, CUG www.cug.edu.cn