

IAEE BEST STUDENT PAPER AWARD GUIDELINES

IAEE is pleased to offer an award for the Best Student Paper on energy economics in 2007. The award will consist of a $1000.00 cash prize plus waiver of conference registration fees to attend the IAEE Wellington International Conference, February 18-21, 2007. To be considered for the IAEE Best Student Paper Award please follow the below guidelines.

- Student must be a member of IAEE in good standing.
- Electronically Submit complete paper by December 31, 2006, to IAEE Headquarters.
- Paper MUST be original work by the student, who must be the sole author.
- The paper should not exceed 10,000 words.
- Submit a letter stating that you are a full-time student and are not employed full-time. The letter should briefly describe your energy interests and tell what you hope to accomplish by attending the conference. The letter should also provide the name and contact information of your main faculty supervisor or your department chair. Please also, include a copy of your student identification card.
- Submit a brief letter from a faculty member, preferably your main faculty supervisor, indicating your research interests, the nature of your academic program, and your academic progress. The faculty member should state whether he or she recommends that you be granted the IAEE Best Student Paper Award in 2007.

Complete applications should be submitted to IAEE Headquarters office no later than December 31, 2006 for consideration. You must electronically send all the above materials to iaee@iaee.org

NOTE: The recipient of the $1000.00 cash prize will receive notification of this award and be presented the award at the IAEE International Conference in Wellington, New Zealand. This individual will also receive a complimentary registration to attend the meeting. Please note that all travel (ground/air, etc.) and hotel accommodations, meal costs (in addition to conference-provided meals), etc., will be the responsibility of the award recipient.

For further questions regarding IAEE's Best Paper Award, please do not hesitate to contact David Williams, IAEE Executive Director at 216-464-2785 or via e-mail at: iaee@iaee.org

IAEE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

IAEE is offering a limited number of student scholarships to the 30th IAEE International Conference. Any student applying to receive scholarship funds should:

- 1) Submit a letter stating that you are a full-time student and are not employed full-time. The letter should briefly describe your energy interests and tell what you hope to accomplish by attending the conference. The letter should also provide the name and contact information for your main faculty supervisor or your department chair, and should include a copy of your student identification card.
- 2) Submit a brief letter from a faculty member, preferably your main faculty supervisor, indicating your research interests, the nature of your academic program, and your academic progress. The faculty member should state whether he or she recommends that you be awarded the scholarship funds.

IAEE scholarship funds will be used to cover the conference registration fees for the Wellington IAEE International Conference. All travel (air/ground) and hotel accommodations, meal costs (in addition to conference-provided meals), etc., will be the responsibility of each individual recipient of scholarship funds.

Completed applications should be submitted to IAEE Headquarters office no later than January 15, 2007, for consideration. Please email to: David L. Williams, Executive Director, IAEE, 28790 Chagrin Blvd., Suite 350, Cleveland, OH 44122.

Students who do not wish to apply for scholarship funds may also attend the conference at the reduced student registration fee. Please respond to item #1 above to qualify for this special reduced registration rate. Please note that IAEE reserves the right to verify student status in accepting reduced registration fees.

If you have any further questions regarding IAEE's scholarship program, please do not hesitate to contact David Williams, IAEE Executive Director, at 216-464-2785 or via e-mail at: iaee@iaee.org
